What Makes A Good Leader

Jade Master Lixian Huang

As a vegetarian, Jade Master Lixian Huang recognized the value of Nutritional Immunology and E. EXCEL's products right away when a friend introduced her to them in 2013. But, it wasn't until she attended the 2014 Better Health • A Richer Life conference in Toronto and heard directly from Dr. Jau-Fei Chen, that she gained the confidence she needed to actively start building her E. EXCEL business.

Once she started building, it only took her a year and a half to become a Jade Master and a strong leader! The following are some qualities that Lixian has discovered make an effective leader, and she is sharing them with her downline to help her team leaders develop good leadership qualities as well.

“DR. CHEN HAS ALREADY DONE THE HARD PART; WE ONLY SHARE HER WORK.”

Always Be Positive

Lixian instinctively knew the first leadership quality as her team began to grow. She understood that she needed to always show her teammates a positive attitude. Even if she is feeling down or unhappy, she is always positive for her team, letting them know that she will never give up, and will always be there for them. However, when troubles do get her down, she has a unique way of looking at them. “I remember that Dr. Chen said we should never be afraid to fail. Failure is just discovering another way that doesn’t work. If she can overcome her problems and never be afraid of failing, then I can, too. After all, Dr. Chen has already done the hard part; we only share her work.”

Listen

The second leadership quality followed quickly. “Listen first,” she says. “Listen for what people need and what they want, and then find a way to fulfill their needs and desires.” She is most happy when she is sharing E. EXCEL with newcomers and helping them achieve better health and a richer life. Although, she does find following up with some people a bit perplexing. “Those people who have questions and ask them, or at least talk to me, give me an opportunity to help them understand more. It’s those who don’t ask questions and never say anything that present a challenge. How do you know what they need or want? You have to use a proactive approach with them.”

Encourage and Uplift

“What people want can be as different and unique as the individuals themselves,” Lixian relates. “Ultimately, it doesn’t matter if you’re an upline, sideline, downline—we need to encourage and uplift each other so we can all reach our individual dreams. If we are willing to work hard, work for each other, and work with each other, we will prevail. Sharing the importance of prevention can bring better health and a richer life to all of us.”

Understand the Power in Gathering

“Meetings and events provide a place for people to gather and learn from each other. I always go to meetings, or hold my own home parties. It is very important to feel the camaraderie of the group, and in larger meetings and events for various groups to learn from and support each other, building strong relationships.” There is power in groups of people all working toward the same goal.

Build Strong Relationships

Lixian believes that building healthy relationships is very important, particularly as a group grows larger. She asks, “What are you willing to do for others, or are you waiting for someone else to do it? Don’t be afraid to make the first move.” As a group grows, those relationships you are building now become the glue that holds the group together and keeps it focused on the goals they have set.

“SHARING THE IMPORTANCE OF PREVENTION CAN BRING BETTER HEALTH AND A RICHER LIFE TO ALL OF US.”

Lixian and her group's current goal is to win the ALL IN contest and travel to the Mayan Riviera this year. She and nine members of her group are registered VIPs. They are working together to achieve this goal. "We will succeed if we continue to work together to support and help each other," Lixian believes.

Lixian immigrated to New York from China in 2000, looking for her American dream. She was a teacher in China, but without education and skills in the US, the only work she could find was in a restaurant. Through the daily grind of that labor, her dream slipped away from her. At the end of the day, she had no physical or mental energy to actively pursue her dream. Her introduction to E. EXCEL not only helped her regain that energy, but also provided her with a way to achieve her dreams. "E. EXCEL gave me everything I needed to pursue my dream. Everyone has their own goals, their own dream. Dare to dream, and bravely take action to achieve it!" Lixian is doing just that by sharing the qualities that make her a great leader with others.

MANAGE WEIGHT 3 WAYS WITH 1-SHAPE™

SOY: AN EXCELLENT SOURCE OF PROTEIN

On a low-calorie diet, adequate protein intake is important to prevent muscle loss. Muscle cells burn more calories than fat cells do. The more muscle you have in relation to fat, the higher your metabolic rate. When on a low-calorie diet, not eating enough protein to build and maintain muscles results in less muscle available to burn calories.

PSYLLIUM HUSK: FIBERLICIOUS GOODNESS

Dieting can cause constipation due to inadequate fiber intake; however, there is more to fiber than preventing constipation. Fiber also aids in weight control by expanding in the stomach and forming a gel-like consistency when it absorbs water. Besides taking up more space, it delays the rate at which food leaves the stomach, providing a full feeling longer and helping to curb appetite.

AMERICAN GINSENG: NATURE'S ENERGIZER

Fatigue and a weakened immune system are common on a low-calorie diet or in the midst of changing diets. American ginseng is an excellent adaptogen that helps energize and tranquilize a tired body under stress. The phytochemicals in American ginseng, such as ginsenoside Rb1, help reduce physical stress reactions.

EXPERIENCE

EXCITING, MAGICAL, UNFORGETTABLE

E. EXCEL TRAVEL

Anyone who has been on an E. EXCEL incentive trip will tell you it was fantastic, or magical, or amazing, or breathtaking. The words may vary, but the sentiment is always the same: We LOVE it! But don't take our word for it. See what E. Excellers themselves have to say!

Alaska

"Winning contests is always my goal. The purpose of contests is expanding and growing my E. EXCEL business. The biggest reward is that I did it!"
– Jade Master Emily Hsu, New York

"Thank you E. EXCEL for preparing this trip to Singapore for us, it's really a wonderful experience for all. It's great to associate with other fine leaders, and we learned a lot from all of them. – Diamond Master Carmen Xie, New York

"I would like to express my deepest gratitude to E. EXCEL for giving us this wonderful opportunity. Not only did we have the chance to visit the beautiful and richly historical lands of Singapore, but also the chance to mingle and get to know E. Excellers from other places. "An E. EXCEL business is different from a traditional business. Through learning, sharing, duplication, and teamwork, I became a Pearl Master and also won Grand Prize in the Heart of Europe Incentive Trip. I had been in a traditional business for over ten years, and never went on any free trip! Now I'm taking my husband with me on this unforgettable trip with E. EXCEL! I am so excited!"

– Pearl Master Yi Li, New York

"The Hong Kong/Macau trip was so good! We had the chance to listen, learn, and laugh. All the Excellers were so cute as we traveled together to celebrate E. EXCEL's 25th birthday, and we can see clearly that there will be many more birthdays with the company. We came home with sweet memories, and the hope that we can meet again as winners in the next contest."

– Diamond Master Jennie Kuo, California

"The company carefully arranged this trip for us and it has touched me deeply! It's so amazing how this warm E. EXCEL family helps each other progress and grow, while enjoying five-star treatment. We seemed to be living in a fairy tale, particularly when receiving recognition on the stage! The feeling is unforgettable! I am too happy! Thank you very much!"

– Diamond Master Anna An, New York

"This has been the greatest E. EXCEL incentive trip yet. Everything was organized so perfectly and everyone was rewarded so much more than expected. There were so many surprises and that made everyone feel extra special. It was such a great reward for everyone who worked so hard to win."

– Jade Ambassador Dr. Xiuguo Zhang, Ontario

Prague/Budapest

Hong Kong/Macau

“There were so many surprises and that made everyone feel extra special. It was such a great reward for everyone who worked so hard to win.”

"I went to Taiwan as the guest of my Upline and it had a great impact on me, so I signed up for the Vegas contest. I especially wanted to win Grand Prize and take my husband because his birthday is during the trip!"

– Pearl Master Min Min Peng, Ontario

"My Upline encouraged me, so I decided to try to win this trip. I wanted this opportunity for this amazing reward. I chose this business because I know it is the right business. I gain health and an income by helping others."

"Many people work very hard all their lives and their only reward is a pat on the back. There are no gold watches any more. With E. EXCEL, and that same hard work, you get the equivalent of a gold watch every year, going to places you might never have visited otherwise. Just wonderful!"

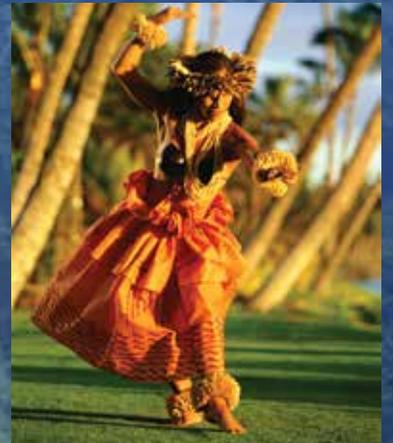

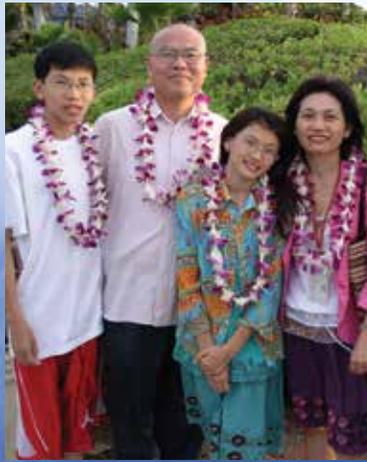

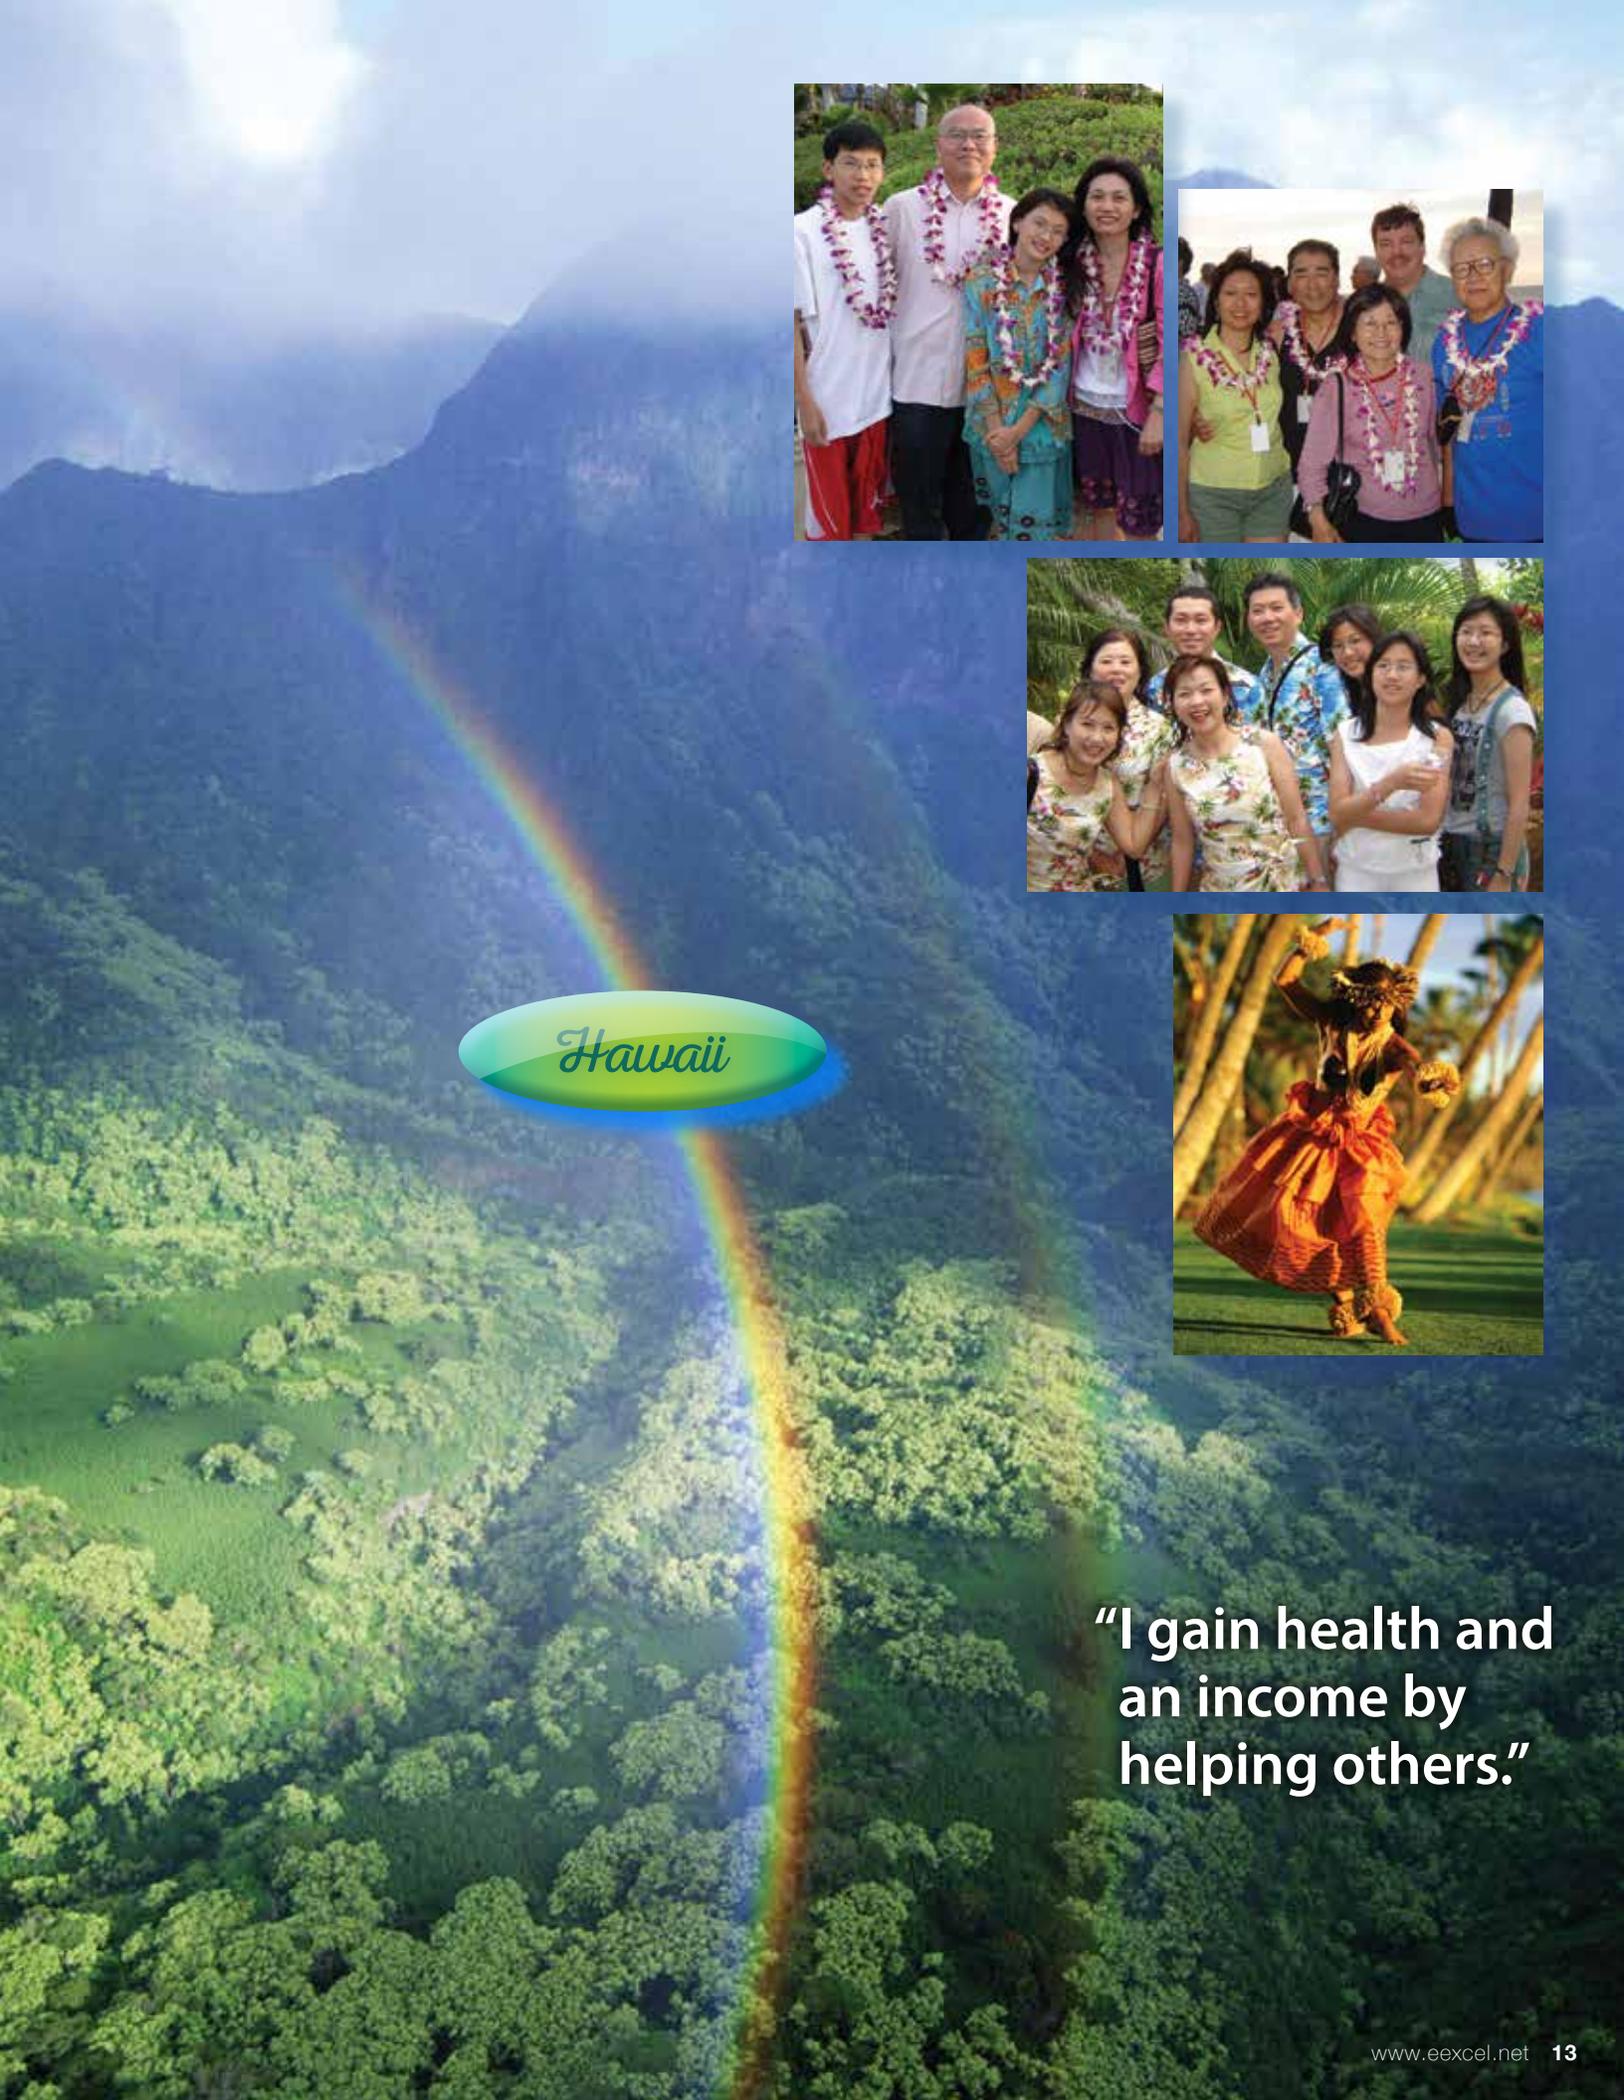

– Diamond Master Roy Tighe Parker, Ontario

"I am so excited about this trip. I learned how to do my E. EXCEL business and had a lot of fun!"

– Diamond Master Lily Shen, Ontario

Hawaii

"I gain health and an income by helping others."

"It has been my dream to visit Taiwan. Going there with E. EXCEL was amazing. It left me with deep impressions and grand memories. E. EXCEL gave us one surprise after another for amazing emotional highs. The biggest surprise was visiting the Taiwan office and visiting Dr. Chen, but the biggest emotional high was the convention, seeing the excitement of thousands of people."

– Jade Master Kit Mason, British Columbia

"Taiwan is one of the most amazing places in the world. The country is beautiful, the culture is rich, and the people are pleasant. And of course, E. EXCEL Taiwan is just as amazing as the country itself. Its staff organized a wonderful, heartfelt convention. The experiences from the Taiwan Incentive Trip will remain close to my heart."

– Silver Master Sam Tran, Ontario

"I saw lots of E. Excellers who went on the last trip who won the contest, that means we are all growing. I am very happy about that. We need more people, more lines growing together, make E. EXCEL larger and larger. We all win. This is so fantastic. I love it."

– Diamond Master Priscilla Chen, Ontario

"Going on a trip with the company is completely different than a trip by ourselves. The E. EXCEL staff made every winner feel like a superstar. The most exciting event was Taiwan's 2014 E. EXCEL Convention with more than 10,000 E. Excellers. Imagine how much power and passion was created in the auditorium? We believe that North America has a huge potential in sharing NI and expanding the E. EXCEL market. If Taiwan E. Excellers can do it, we North American E. Excellers can do it, too! This trip indeed gave us beautiful memories, unforgettable experiences, and great energy."

– Diamond Master Zhuo Chen, Ontario

"I appreciate the contest trips the company offers because they help me increase my confidence as well as travel around the world. Getting together with other E. Excellers is also very exciting. On every trip I win, I see myself and my E. EXCEL business growing. I feel like I must win every trip and bring more of my team members with me!"

Elemente's Ageless Appeal

You can find new E. Excellers at any age to join your team, especially with Elemente®. Tap into new networks with the appeal it has for young and old alike!

Essential Line-Defying Facial Cream

Cameras are everywhere these days—smart phones and tablets are in almost everyone's hands wherever you go. The younger generation is at the center of this craze, but even the not so young can be easily found snapping pictures of their lives, their friends, their meals, and themselves with their selfie sticks!

Youth Rejuvenator Facial Moisturizer

No matter our age, we all want to look our best for those candid shots. What a great opportunity to talk to people about Elemente skincare. Wouldn't they look so much better in those selfies after using Elemente products?

Perhaps you are trying to tap into a network of Millennials. Begin with a compliment. Tell them how young and beautiful they look, and how you hope they are treating their skin well to retain that beauty. Talk to them about the wonderful, botanical-based products you use on your own skin—if only they had been available when you were their age. (Or perhaps you are their age and prefer to clue them in on the latest skincare regime that keeps your skin so radiant!)

✦ ELEMENTE® QUALITY AND SAFETY

- Uses skin-friendly raw materials that are safe, pure, non-toxic, and do not harm skin
- Uses alcohol made from fermented grain and yeast, which does not contain toxic benzenes or methanol
- Uses materials from Japan, which has some of the world's most stringent safety tests and controls
- Rigorous testing
 - For multiple ingredient reactions
 - For multiple product reactions

 - But, never on animals!

HAVE A PHOTO OP PARTY!

Invite friends, share Elemente® with them, and then pull out those cell phones and take some selfies to show them just how great they can look!

The point is, you are talking to them about products they have some interest in, the type of products they probably use regularly anyway. While an approach using E. EXCEL health foods might be less appealing to a younger person who feels their health will last forever, an approach to looking great in those photo ops might just be the key to hook them—and a little extra income is welcome at any age!

When you are prospecting for new E. EXCEL members, don't forget the twenty and thirty-somethings who are out there enjoying life and feeling invincible. Remember Elemente skincare products might just be the key to piquing their interest and starting a whole new range of business for you, and for them!

ORCHESTRA™

Two powerful ingredients help maintain a long and healthy life

Kumazasa: Cleansing Bamboo

Kumazasa is a species of bamboo. Its name comes from Japanese kuma zasa, meaning 'bear leaf.' The Japanese observed that when bears awake from hibernation, they search out the kumazasa bamboo plant and eat the leaves, which purify and detoxify blood.

Ashitaba: The Longevity Herb that Supports Overall Health

During the Edo period, convicts exiled to Hachijo Island in Japan—despite hard labor and poor diets—lived long lives. Scholars attribute their unlikely longevity to their consumption of ashitaba, which was endemic on the island and regularly eaten by the convicts. Ashitaba is Japanese for tomorrow's leaf. If you pluck a leaf from the ashitaba plant, it is said a new one will grow overnight.

Studies have shown that ashitaba contains a large number of phytochemicals that support overall health and longevity.

A Richer Life Filled with Hope

Pearl Master Li Qiong Lei

For years, Li Qiong Lei suffered from a respiratory condition that made simply taking a breath difficult. She saw doctor after doctor, trying Traditional Chinese Medicine, western medicine, and anything else that she could find.

Allergies and pollution aggravated her condition to the point her trachea narrowed, making it difficult to even cough to clear congestion. Surgery was not a good option and she started feeling hopeless. Throughout this trial, Li Qiong tried to remain strong for those who depended on her, so she struggled to care for her family and herself.

Finding Hope

One day in 2013, she saw a friend who was looking and feeling great after previously suffering from severe allergies. Her friend told her that she was taking some new products but didn't go into more detail because she assumed Li

Qiong would not be interested in the extra expense. Li Qiong responded with, "What does money matter to me if I feel so sick all the time?"

She convinced

her friend to share information about E. EXCEL products and how she could attend a meeting to learn more.

Li Qiong attended that meeting and learned more about Nutritional Immunology. She immediately thought, "This is my hope!" After a bit more research and listening to Dr. Chen and other E. Excellers, she joined E. EXCEL in August of 2013.

Li Qiong's Advice to All E. Excellers

Never be afraid to share. "People are looking for better health and a richer life. I tell them 'I was looking for this for over ten years! Do you want to hear more?'"

I chose E. EXCEL for my health, and I got a richer life as well! I gained knowledge, achievement, and happiness in the process!

A New Beginning

In January of 2014, she thought, “I’ve been saved!” Her bronchial tubes are still narrow, but the congestion that used to make it so difficult to breathe had cleared. Feeling stable and safe, she was filled with hope and the sense her life had a new beginning.

“Today, if you don’t nourish your body, you will use your money to nourish the doctor tomorrow. Our immune system is the best doctor and Dr. Chen is writing the instruction manual for our bodies.”

Using what she learned in this process, Li Qiong says wisely, “Choosing is very important. We can choose to give up, but we should never give up on our choices. I chose E. EXCEL for my health, and I got a richer life as well! I gained knowledge, achievement, and happiness in the process!” Today Li Qiong enjoys so many of the rich rewards of E. EXCEL, including cherished friendships, recognition for her achievements, and world travel.

A Business of Her Own

Li Qiong always dreamed of starting her own business. She originally planned to pursue it after her children were grown but with her health issues, she wasn't sure she'd ever have the opportunity. Today, her E. EXCEL business is growing and she can work from home while taking care of her family. "With E. EXCEL, your background, your age, your education, nothing matters but your dream to be successful. You can have a flexible schedule, residual income, and free, 5-star, world travel. Even if you make lots of money working at a big corporation, it won't give you those things!"

No obstacle will keep Li Qiong from reaching her next clear goal—becoming a Jade Master. She knows this because, as she says, "My miracle has already happened!"

E. EXCEL products that help support the respiratory system include:

- NOCO®
- ACT™
- POLY5®
- Millennium®

Li Qiong continues to take these products for her health.

“With E. EXCEL, your background, your age, your education, nothing matters but your dream to be successful.”
